

FACT SHEET

City of Banning Community Action Committee – Banning Animal Shelter

- ◆ Currently there is no animal shelter operating in the city of Banning (or anywhere in the Pass).
  - ◆ Animal service calls are handled by the City of Beaumont and billed: $75 per call for strays billed to the City of Banning, and $90 for owner turn-ins paid by residents.
  - ◆ Animals are held in a holding room at the Beaumont PD and are transported once per day to the Ramona Animal Shelter in San Jacinto.
  - ◆ In 2015 in the city of Banning 838 animals were picked up. 85 were returned to owners, 383 were adopted out, 173 were transferred to other shelters (outcome unknown), 2 were rehabilitated and transferred, 170 were euthanized and 1 was DOA. 90% of the animals taken to Ramona Animal Shelter are never returned to their families.
  - ◆ If you believe your animal has been picked up by Animal Control, immediately call (951) 769-8500. You will have an opportunity to go to Beaumont PD to check if your animal is there. Time is of the essence.
  - ◆ The approximate distance Banning residents must travel to claim animals is 17-20 miles.
  - ◆ There is an abandoned animal shelter in the city of Banning (requiring major renovation).
  - ◆ There are no low-cost spay/neuter/vaccination services in the City of Banning.
